Office of the Commandant

Dear HR Leader,

I would like to take this opportunity to welcome you to Fort Jackson and to congratulate you on your selection for Division G1 or Command. The Officer Training Department of the Adjutant General School conducts a branch oriented Division G1/Pre-Command Course to further enhance your transition into either of these critical positions. The course is structured around a series of seminars covering aspects we feel are vital to the success of any Division G1 or Battalion Commander.

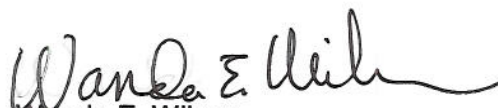

As you probably know, Fort Jackson is the home of the Adjutant General's Corps and the Soldier Support Institute. We are proud of the positive environment, curriculum and opportunities that we offer to our attendees during their short stay with us. To this end, we have one of our finest senior leaders, Colonel David K. MacEwen, who has graciously offered his time and is eager to serve as the mentor for your class.

You must come prepared to learn, interact, and share your experiences with your peers as well as the faculty and staff in the AG school and Soldier Support Institute. During the course, we have set time aside for you to meet with the students currently enrolled in our AG BOLC, WOAC and CCC classes. The forum will be conducted in a large group setting using an interactive format. Some examples of questions they have asked in the past include: your thoughts on command, professional development, expectations and measures of success for junior officers, impacts of personnel transformation and current events in the Army and the HR profession, and past duty assignments and locations.

On our website http://agsssi-www.army.mil/td/otd/TD%20WebPage/AG%20PCC/PCC\_page.htm you will find the information needed for the course. If you need additional information, please contact Major Ed Allen, Course Director, at DSN 734-8133, commercial (803) 751-8133 or email edward.allen@jackson.army.mil. I believe you will find this experience to be both personally and professionally rewarding.

Again, we look forward to hosting you at the AG School and congratulations on your selection for Division G1 or Command. DEFEND AND SERVE!

Sincerely,

Wanda E. Wilson
